

UNLOCK INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

What is the GCNC?

GCNC is an exclusive private network for leaders of the best and most innovative companies across the cannabis supply chain. Our mission is to empower industry leaders like you with practical business support, while fostering a safe space for like-minded individuals to share their experiences, challenges, and triumphs.

Membership Benefits include curated introductions, strategic partnerships, significant discounts to key trade shows, marketing and PR opportunities, and much more.

Who are the Members?

We vet premier organizations in their sector of the cannabis industry looking to provide expertise, products, and services while expanding their businesses. By collaborating and sharing their expertise with other well-informed professionals, members use the GCNC to expand their international partnerships, fill their supply chain needs, and find cost-efficient ways to network and market.

When you become a part of GCNC, you gain access to a powerful and collaborative network of visionary professionals who are shaping the future of the cannabis industry.

"The GCNC is a great caliber of people who really are making things happen in cannabis. They're creating a global footprint with really impactful people."
